

Port Authority Environmental Policy

Port Authority is committed to conducting Port operations using a systematic approach to environmental management to protect and preserve the natural environment.

Therefore, the Port of Houston Authority will:

Comply with environmental laws and regulations;

Create business practices that prevent pollution and support sustainability;

Communicate, engage, and collaborate with stakeholders;

Commit to being a recognized maritime industry leader in environmental stewardship;

Continuously improve environmental performance.

Charlie Jenkins
Chief Executive Officer